I (we) apply for Membership in Congregation Beth El of Manhattan. In so doing, we affirm the following:

1. Agreement with the beliefs of the congregation as outlined in the Membership Series (6 lessons), and enter Membership with no concealed explicit conflict of substance, nor established intent to change or create disaffection from it's beliefs.

2. Commitment of our entire tithes (10% of net income) to the congregation, as per the directives of the Torah, as reaffirmed by Malachi 3:10ff and 1Corinthians 9:13-14.

3. Actively to seek, and with reasonable expedience to find at least one substantive niche of service, so as to give back to the L-rd and the community, as well as learn and pray with it.

4. When or if the time comes to end Membership, to do so by the orderly means outlined in Scripture, including avoidance of haste, getting of counsel, and adhering to Prov. 18:17 and Matt. 18:15-17.

5. The name of my last rabbi/pastor is: _____, who may be reached by
